

Parent Resources

700+ Great Sites

Compiled by the American Library Association, this website provides an amazing array of valuable web sites for students, parents, and teachers.

The Parents Guide to the Internet is intended to help parents - regardless of your level of technological know-how--make use of the on-line world as an important educational tool. The guide gives parents an introduction to the Internet and suggests how parents can allow their children to tap into the wonders of the Internet while safeguarding them from its potential hazards.

WiredSafety is the world's largest Internet safety and help group.

PTA.Org is a powerful voice for all children, a relevant resource for families and communities, a strong advocate for the education and well-being of all children. The links listed below are three of many articles found on the Parent Resources page.

Life After High School: Helping Teens Who Are College Bound

The Six Pillars of Character

Are Middle and High School Students Reading to Learn or Learning to Read?

National Education Association: A Parent's Guide to Helping Your Teen Get the Most Out of High School is a guide developed to provide parents with information they can use to help their teenagers succeed in high school.

NCTE: Tips for Parents from the National Council Teachers of English. Helping Your Teenager Write Better

Family Education Network empowers learners of all ages to reach their full potential.

Homework Tips for Teens

Tackling Tough Reading Assignments

